

SUMMER VACATION PLACEMENTS

YouGov are searching for a very strong candidate to join their Political and Social Research Department during the Summer vacation.

The successful candidate will act as a key member of the team, writing survey questions, scripting surveys, analysing data and producing results. Clients may include major media organisations, academics, political parties, NGOs, charities, pressure groups, think tanks and 10 Downing Street.

Throughout the placement you can expect to gain unrivalled experience of conducting primary quantitative research for one of the country's most successful, innovative and well-known research organisations.

This period is set to be a very busy one for YouGov and in particular the political team. The position is therefore best suited to a confident, well-organised and bright individual who has a good understanding of primary research. The team are looking for someone with a 'can-do' attitude who will be able to learn quickly and be happy to help on a variety of tasks.

Full details of the placement and candidate requirements can be found here

APPLICATION

Your application should consist of a CV in PDF format and a covering letter. They should be sent to cm575@cam.ac.uk

The deadline for applications is 15 April 2016.

The applications will be collated and sent to YouGov and candidates will be invited for an interview.

Shift Learning are a boutique agency specialising in market research and usability testing for the education sector. Their client list includes some of the world's leading publishers, scholarly societies, awarding organisations, universities and colleges including Pearson, OUP, CUP, OCR, City and Guilds, the University of the Arts, the University of Sheffield, Kings College London, the BMJ and many others.

Tasks for the successful applicant are likely to include desk research, recruitment and interviewing educators and learners, analysis of qualitative and quantitative data, assisting with focus groups and workshops and editing research reports and proposals.

Shift are looking for someone who is friendly, co-operative, intelligent, curious empathetic, engaged and has good attention to detail. An ability to be comfortable with both qualitative and quantitative methods to some degree will also be important.

Full details of the placement and candidate requirements can be found here

APPLICATION

Your application should consist of a CV in PDF format and a covering letter. They should be sent to cm575@cam.ac.uk

The deadline for applications is 15 April 2016.

The applications will be collated and sent to Shift Learning. Candidates will then be invited for interview.

EASTER VACATION PLACEMENTS

YouGov are searching for a very strong candidate to join their Political and Social Research Department during the Easter vacation.

The main purpose of this role will be to assist the Political team in the run up to the London Mayoral, Welsh and Scottish elections in early May 2016.

The successful candidate will act as a key member of the team, writing survey questions, scripting surveys, analysing data and producing results. Clients may include major media organisations, academics, political parties, NGOs, charities, pressure groups, think tanks and 10 Downing Street.

Throughout the placement you can expect to gain unrivalled experience of conducting primary quantitative research for one of the country's most successful, innovative and well-known research organisations.

This period is set to be a very busy one for YouGov and in particular the political team. The position is therefore best suited to a confident, well-organised and bright individual who has a good understanding of primary research. The team are looking for someone with a 'can-do' attitude who will be able to learn quickly and be happy to help on a variety of tasks.

Full details of the placement and candidate requirements can be found here

APPLICATION

Your application should consist of a CV in PDF format and a covering letter. They should be sent to cm575@cam.ac.uk

The deadline for applications is 29 January 2016.

The applications will be collated and sent to YouGov and candidates will be invited for an interview.